Newsletter 191 - January 2013

We are now half way through our 46th season, with some very promising evenings still to come.

Change of programme – a reminder

After we went to print, Paul Goldstein's Antarctica – Frozen Assets presentation was moved to 5th February, and Chris Beynon will be taking his place on 29th January with his Cycling in Guatemala talk.

We shall be holding the second of our two raffles on 5th February when Paul Goldstein comes. This season, the proceeds will be donated to fund tiger projects in the Bandhavgarh National Park in India through the Friends of Conservation charity. Any donations of suitable prizes will be most welcome on the night.

As many of you will know, Paul is a keen supporter of these tiger projects, and has run a number of marathons in recent years in a tiger costume, raising many thousands of pounds.

Looking ahead, we shall also be welcoming back John Buckingham who will showing us Costa Rica's birds, wildlife, flora and scenery, Kev Reynolds who will be trekking for Ten Days Around Mont Blanc through magnificent scenery, and Denise Heywood who will be journeying on the Road to Bali in the footsteps of Stamford Raffles.

Adverse weather – a timely reminder

Generally, even if the main roads are clear, a meeting may be cancelled if there is snow and / or ice on untreated minor roads, or if there is any other significant problem with the weather, which makes travel difficult. A final decision will usually be made by 2pm on the day of the meeting, and, if cancelled, an e-mail will be sent out.

If you feel that there is any doubt as to whether a meeting will take place, please check your e-mails before you leave home, in case the meeting has been cancelled. If you do not have an e-mail address, please telephone either the Membership Secretary or me (01483-831430) to find out.
