

Guildford Travel Club presents

Hilary Bradt:

Madagascar

In Search of the Bizarre

18 March 2008

Madagascar is unique: the people, wildlife and landscape are like nowhere else on earth. As a tour leader and author, Hilary Bradt has visited the world's fourth largest island over 30 times. Although lemurs are the best known animals here, there are many bizarre creatures that get less publicity. The Malagasy people, warm-hearted and generous, have their own eccentricities including the 'turning of the bones' when ancestors are exhumed.

Hilary Bradt is a travel writer, broadcaster, publisher and tour guide who has travelled widely and adventurously during the last 40 years. She is the founder of Bradt Travel Guides which specialises in guidebooks to unusual destinations.
