

Guildford Travel Club presents

Paul Whittle:

China - Beyond the Great Wall

17 March 2009

Paul's talk covers two recent trips to China. Firstly the highlights of a 2000 mile journey from bustling Beijing and Xian, through industrial and mining areas, to the remote and bleak mountainous Jing Peng region of Inner Mongolia.

Then, in complete contrast, to the dramatic scenery of south-western Yunnan Province - and a town re-named Shangri La.

Paul is a keen photographer/traveller and gives over 100 lectures a year to raise funds for charities in Burma (Myanmar). He has a special interest in heritage railways and is Vice Chairman of the Darjeeling Himalayan Railway Society which supports this World Heritage line in north-east India.
